And here are the 7 lessons that I learned while facing the worst demons...

Introduction

Exorcism is scary...

Indeed, everyone has already seen horror films, with possessed people or zombies who attack, rape and kill... science fiction films with extra-terrestrials who come to Earth to suck out the soul human beings... or even fantasy films, with "reptilian" type aliens, or other types of scary demons who walk on the walls screaming shrill screams that make your blood run cold...

In short, the world of aliens, demons, extra-terrestrials and vampires is scary, very scary!

And to reassure ourselves, when leaving the cinema, or turning off our television, we tell ourselves that all this only exists in films, and certainly not in our world, and even less at home...

Until the day, when this scary world begins to “penetrate” into our personal world...

We then notice different symptoms of varying intensity...

- anxiety and palpitation for no apparent reason (generalized anxiety)
- feeling of being manipulated by a voice that loops in our head (obsessive thoughts, forbidden fantasies, etc.)

- negative thoughts accompanied by horror images (dark thoughts, fears and phobias, etc.)
- development of bipolar disorders with crises alternating between anger/guilt, sadness/excitement, depression/joy, etc., crises which cause great emotional suffering and psychological instability (bipolarity)
- feeling of being surrounded by invisible presences (haunted house and)
- various paranormal phenomena (chain or other noises, electrical equipment that turns on or off by itself, black shadows or light phenomena, etc.)
- feeling of being possessed by one or more invisible forces which generate emotions, thoughts, and feelings (which are not yours), but which you are no longer able to chase away or control (schizophrenia)
- feeling of losing control of yourself, your body and your mind, feeling that you are going crazy (possession)

Etc.

If you suffer from just one of these symptoms, there is a good chance that you are a victim of what is commonly called negative energy, a very vague term used to avoid scaring the victim.

Because in truth, the person is rather disturbed by a real evil entity, as conscious and intelligent as you, except that this evil entity is invisible, because it evolves in an invisible dimension, parallel to ours (we will talk about it later) .

Thus, through my profession, I have had to exorcise a good number of clients, several thousand people suffering from various physical and mental health symptoms, symptoms which were in truth caused by one or more evil entities.

Science and medicine obviously reject this point of view, they simply stop at the description of the symptom (generalized anxiety, depression, bipolarity, hallucination, madness, etc.) by prescribing the appropriate medications to eliminate it, but without eliminating the root cause of the symptom.

Yet from the point of view of an exorcist priest, all these mental health problems are often (not always) linked to evil entities that control the individual's mind (to be sure, you must first do an energetic and spiritual assessment, a diagnosis of the evil forces present).

So be careful, this is my personal opinion, my truth, relative to my experience, it is not an absolute truth.

Moreover, I invite you to consult your doctor regarding health matters, and to follow his medical treatment to the letter, especially if you suffer from a mental disorder.

Also consult all alternative therapists, energy healers, magnetizers, mediums, Christian, Jewish, Muslim priests, who inspire you confidence, and ask them if they are able to free you from EVIL.

And if, after all your consultations, nothing has worked, then it will be high time to contact a specialized exorcist, regardless of religion, because ALL your problems may be caused by an evil entity.

Now, in order to know me better, and perhaps entrust me with your exorcism care, I will present to you the lessons I learned while facing the worst demons of the invisible world, evil beings who have immense powers and above all absolutely diabolical intentions.

If horror films send shivers down your spine, it is because you have not yet “seen” the invisible world, it is absolutely terrifying (while being absolutely exciting, for its luminous part).

Before presenting to you the lessons that I learned during the exorcism treatments that I carried out, I will first present to you a quick test, which allows you to quickly determine your degree of vampirization. Note that this test also allows you to determine if you are a victim of black or red magic...

TEST

Are you vampirized by an evil entity?

Before presenting to you the 7 major lessons that I learned from exorcising more than a thousand people, I will first present to you a test.

This infallible test allows you to know:

- if you are vampirized by an evil entity
- if you are a victim of black magic (destruction)
- if you are a victim of red magic (bewitchment)
- if your health problems come from a physical problem (faulty organ) or from an evil entity that siphons the energy of your soul

NOTE: Consult your doctor regarding health matters. This test is esoteric in nature, it absolutely does not replace the official diagnosis from your doctor.

So here is the test...

Fixate on a fixed point in front of you, a point on the wall, or an object.

Then start a timer.

After a while, your eyes will try to look elsewhere, to change focus, to leave the point you are staring at.

The more time passes, the more your eyes will force you to change your focus.

You will therefore quickly notice that there is a force within you (which is not of your will), which will force you to look elsewhere, to change your center of attention.

This force within you is nothing more and nothing less than an evil entity that is within you, in your body, in your head.

This evil entity doesn't want you to have control over your attention, because the entity wants to control you, to possess you, to direct you, like a shepherd directs his flock of sheep.

The result of the exercise is therefore very simple...

From the first moment you feel a force (contrary to your will) that seeks to make you leave the fixation/concentration point in front of you, you stop the timer.

NOTE: You should stop the timer, not when your eyes leave the point of concentration, but as soon as you observe the first sign of a force contrary to your will. It could be your eyes wanting to look away, intrusive thoughts, head movement, an urge to scratch, etc.

The more quickly and intensely this force (contrary to your will) appears, the more you are vampirized by an evil entity.

For example, a totally possessed person (interned in a psychiatric hospital) cannot fix his attention for more than 5 seconds.

His eyes move all the time (and often his body is in a perpetual pendulum motion).

His eyes (and his attention) are no longer under his control, but under the control of an evil force which has taken complete possession of his body and his mind.

On the other hand, a totally liberated person (such as a spiritual master) can fixate on a point for several minutes, without feeling any force trying to change his attention, against his will.

His eyes (and his attention) are totally under his control, he is thus master of his Life, master of the path he wishes to take.

The truth is, your eyes are connected to your brain and your thoughts, and if you are in control of your eyes (and therefore your power of concentration), then you are not vampirized.

But if you are not in control of your eyes and your power of attention, and you feel a force trying to change your focus, then an evil entity is disturbing you.

So obviously there are different levels of vampirization and each person will get a different result.

As I said, there are people possessed (less than 5 seconds of concentration).

There are spiritual masters (more than 2 minutes of concentration without forcing).

And between these two extremes, there are the people, the masses, the general population, who suffer from various anxiety, mental, emotional, psychological disorders, etc., but which do not necessarily require hospitalization.

The truth is, everyone is vampirized to varying degrees...

You too will feel this ocular force, contrary to your will, unless you are already a spiritual master, totally free from EVIL.

Here are the possible interpretations:

(Remember, you should stop the timer immediately when you feel the very first sign of the force who wants to change your focus).

Below 5 seconds, you are possessed.

Between 5 and 30 seconds, you are strongly vampirized.

Between 30 and 60 seconds, you are moderately vampirized.

Between 60 seconds and 2 minutes, you are slightly vampirized.

After 2 minutes, you are a master (concentration must be done without forcing).

NOTE: People who fall victim to black/red magic often score less than 30 seconds. They very quickly feel this inner force (contrary to their will) which will try to change their focus.

So, whatever your degree of vampirization, an exorcism treatment can only do you good, by freeing you from all the negative energies and all the evil entities which disturb your body and especially your mind.

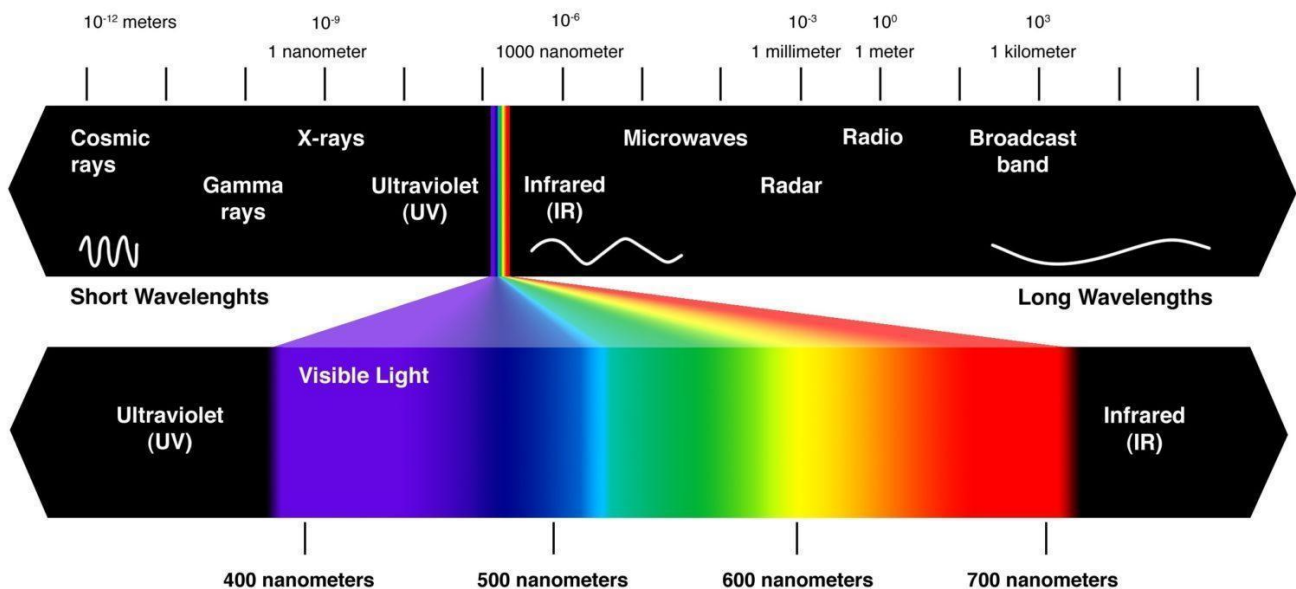

NOTE: an energy assessment carried out with a dowsing pendulum allows you to precisely determine your degree of vampirization (the result obtained is between 0 and 100%).

Now that you have completed your vampirization test, let's move on to the lessons learned during the exorcism treatments that I performed.

LESSON 1

There is an invisible world that you cannot fully imagine

Physicists have proven that your eyes can only see 5% of the total vibrational spectrum of the entire universe, which corresponds to the colors of the rainbow (between 400 and 700 nanometers).

Below, it is the shadow spectrum (infrared), above, it is the light spectrum (ultraviolet).

And again, I'm being kind, 5% is the statistic of the most optimistic scientists, because other astrophysicists speak more of 0.5%.

In other words, despite your beautiful eyes to see the colors of the rainbow, and your curious ears to listen to the surrounding conversations, you are totally blind and deaf to the invisible world, that is to say, you do NOT see or hear the remaining 99.5% of the vibrational spectrum of the universe.

However, I guarantee you, this invisible world is populated by incredible life, an incalculable quantity of entities, entities of light, kind and benevolent, but also entities of the shadow, absolutely terrifying, aggressive, and very ill-intentioned.

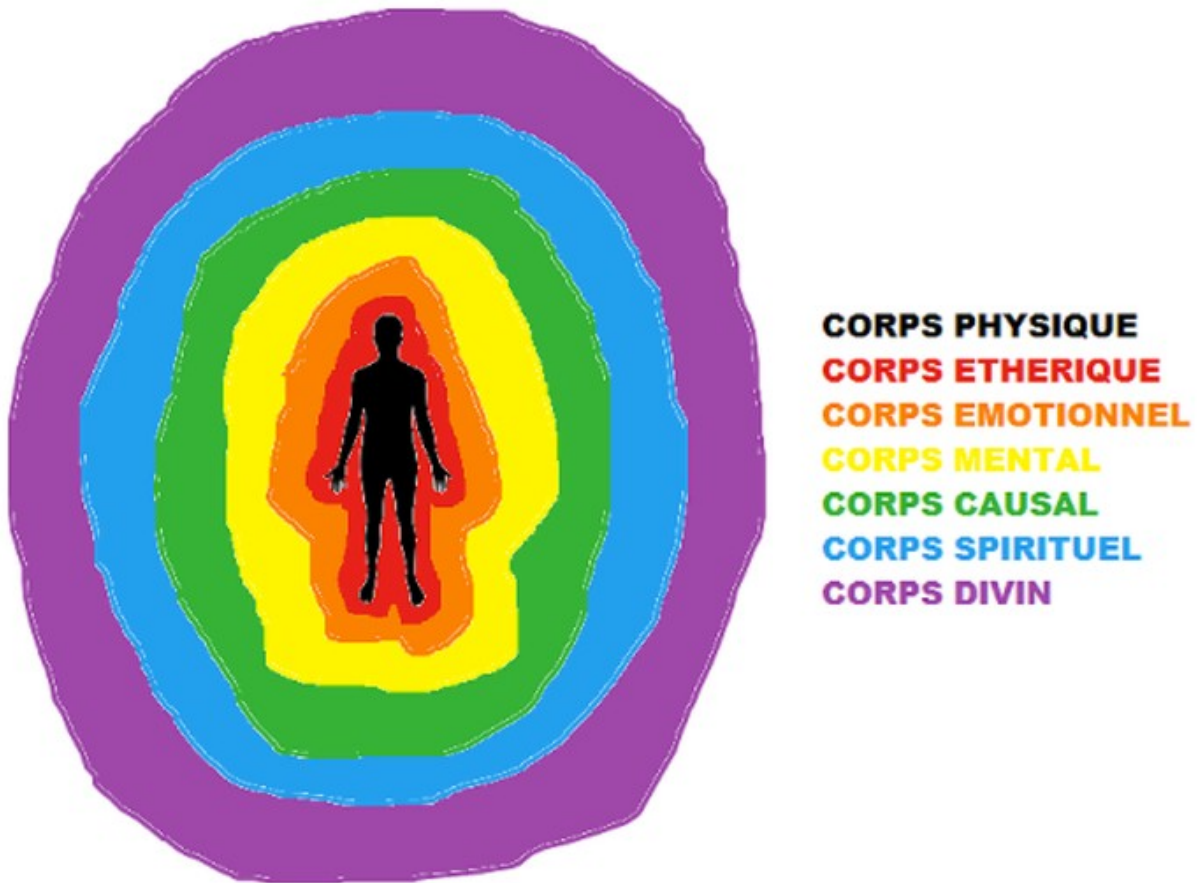

You probably tell yourself that this only happens in fantasy films or horror films, and yet, if you develop a minimum of your sensitivity to the subtle world, that is to say your extra-sensory abilities, you could see and hear beings from other dimensions well (99.5% of the vibrational spectrum that you do not see with eyes).

And if you are religious, your religion has probably already told you about these beings of light and the demons coming from darkness, using names specific to your culture. In truth, for thousands of years, all religions have described these entities of the invisible world, and yet, human beings continue to live as if nothing had happened, as if this invisible world did not exist.

However, EVERYTHING you see and hear in the visible world, its wars, its murders, its rapes, its corruptions, its lies, its conflicts, its crises, its illnesses, etc., are only the visible consequence of what is happening in the invisible world.

Thus, everything you see in your Life is only the emerged tip (visible part 5%) of a submerged iceberg (invisible part 95%), which you do not see and do not hear.

This immense invisible iceberg which shapes your visible Life is made up of innumerable dimensions, which certain religious movements, such as Yoga, have classified into 7 dimensions.

There is obviously the first visible dimension, which you see, hear, experience on a daily basis: your physical body, which corresponds to the tip of the visible iceberg, at 5% of the vibrational spectrum.

The second layer is the etheric plane, which corresponds to your energetic body, to your vital energy which circulates through your invisible meridians (also called nadis in Yoga).

The next layer is the emotional plane, which corresponds to the dimension where your positive and negative emotions circulate.

I speak of “circulation of emotions” for the luckiest among us, because in general, the emotional body of the human being today is literally blocked. In other words, it is loaded with negative emotions which no longer circulate, but which are stuck, blocked, and seek to express themselves, to exteriorize themselves, except that humans have learned to hide their emotions, rather than making them aware and expressing them intelligently (without exploding after holding on to them for too long).

The next layer is the mental plane, the dimension where your positive and negative thoughts circulate. Here again, today's human being is overwhelmed by negative thoughts which accumulate and run in a loop in his head, which causes fears, blockages, phobias, mental disorders, etc.

And be careful, do not believe that the accumulation and repetition of positive thoughts will make you happier, on the contrary, they weigh down your mind as much as negative thoughts, and you will never know inner peace, mental calm, in short a state of consciousness that provides a true feeling of happiness and tranquility.

The next layer is the causal body, the dimension that accumulates the energies of “cause and effect”, that is to say the energetic consequences of your old decisions and actions, from the present, but also from the past. In esoteric language, we talk more simply about your karma.

Karma is just a mass of negative energy that is attached to your soul, like a prisoner would pull a cannonball all his life. This karma weighs you down, slows you down in your daily evolution. If you feel blocked in your life, it's caused by your heavy karma.

The next layer is the spiritual body, your mind, your individual consciousness, your capacity for attention, observation, awareness. It is from this dimension that you can experience all the other lower planes.

In other words, you are (normally) aware of your body, your emotions, your thoughts, your karma, etc. I say “normally”, because the majority of human beings are disconnected from all dimensions of their being. They live automatically, a bit like a robot, a puppet, a sheep manipulated by a computer, a puppeteer, a shepherd.

In truth, the majority of human beings are manipulated/controlled/influenced by extremely powerful evil entities, whose powers you cannot yet imagine.

And these evil entities control you from your 7th and final body, the divine plan, which actually corresponds to your subconscious / unconscious, which is individual, but also collective.

It is from the collective unconscious that shepherds (evil entities) control their sheep (human beings).

Thus, these shadow beings act from this famous invisible world, and be sure of one thing, they will do EVERYTHING for you to avoid becoming aware of this invisible world (95% of the vibrational spectrum), because if you do, the most powerful desire of humanity will appear: the desire for freedom.

So, the first lesson that I want to share with you is quite simply that there exists an invisible world that you do not fully imagine, but a world that you will have to quickly learn to know, because it is the only path to your liberation.

Believing that you are free in the visible world, because you have money, because you travel, because you go to restaurants, because you do what you want, is an illusion, because true freedom is internal.

In other words, to be truly free, you must become aware of your different subtle bodies, clean them, and above all free yourself from the influence of evil entities who vampirize you, and manipulate you like puppets from your subconscious.

In short, it is a real spiritual fight, a fight that I have already carried out for myself, and which I carry out today for others, by helping them to free themselves through remote exorcism prayers.

LESSON #2

There are two main categories of evil entities

In our visible world, you can see the human species, made up of several races with different characteristics: Asians, Africans, Caucasians, Arabs, Thaïs, etc.

You can also see many other animal, plant and mineral species, etc.

On the surface, the visible world is very rich in diversity, and yet it is only 5% of the visible spectrum of the universe.

Imagine then the great diversity, and the quantity of living species, in the 95% of the invisible world! Believe me, your brain is not wired to perceive the immensity...

But don't worry, I'm going to simplify it as much as possible so that you understand.

In truth, there are two main categories of evil entities...

In the field of energetics and spirituality, we speak roughly of the entities of the lower astral, those which evolve close to our physical dimension, below, on Earth, and of the entities of the upper astral, those which evolve above, in Heaven, in higher dimensions (dimension of the spiritual/divine body), in short the evil entities which control human beings from the collective unconscious.

In other words, there are also fallen evil “gods” (diverted from the light of GOD), who evolve in the higher spheres...

NOTE: I use the term “god” here to designate a being who evolves in the high astral (in the higher dimensions), whether luminous or evil.

But there also exist “inferior” evil beings, from the lower astral, who evolve close to our physical dimension. We then talk about astral parasites, demons, black mages, deceased souls, etc.

But we are also talking about the majority of human beings, or should I say human slaves, sheep, puppets, human cattle, who in truth serve as food for the very powerful evil entities of the high astral, but also for all the lower evil entities of the lower astral.

So, just as there is a hierarchy for entities of light, there is also a hierarchy for beings of darkness...

So you have the evil gods who exploit the energy of ignorant human beings, and you have the parasites/demons who delight in the energies of suffering generated by this exploitation.

During an exorcism treatment, you must therefore clearly know what you are fighting, what you are going to face and chase away.

Because as much as it is very easy to chase evil entities from the lower astral (parasites, demons, black mages, etc.), it is more difficult to chase the fallen gods from the higher astral (because it requires a lot of energy resources).

But if this can reassure you, know that it is not the fallen gods who cause the most suffering, because they like to remain discreet (in the unconscious), it is the evil entities of the lower astral who are more violent, aggressive, bestial, because they evolve at the border of our physical world.

The fallen gods just want to exploit your energy, so they will do everything to prevent you from awakening to the invisible world, but they let you live “quietly”, under collective hypnosis.

On the other hand, living vampirized by parasites/demons/black mages is quite simply hell... insomnia, pathological hypersensitivity, psychotic delirium, obsessive thoughts, bipolarity, anger attacks, anxiety for no apparent reason, intense inner suffering (which often cause suicide), etc.

So, with experience, when I meet a person, I know exactly what type of entity vampirized him...

If it is an apparently stable, healthy, intelligent person, I can detect what type of fallen “gods” are manipulating them (annunakis, gray aliens, reptilians, etc.).

If she is an emotionally and psychologically unstable person, or even mentally ill (bipolarity / schizophrenia / etc.), I can also guess what kind of demons / parasites possess her and generate her mental instability, her “madness”.

NOTE: in society, the ruling elites are rather vampirized by fallen gods from the high astral, while the ultra poor (disadvantaged countries) are rather vampirized by entities from the lower astral (astral parasites, demons, etc.). The people in the middle, the middle class, are being vampired by a mixture of the two.

And what is surprising is that the unstable person is much easier to exorcise, because chasing the parasites and demons from the lower astral requires much less subtle energy...

On the other hand, exorcising an apparently “powerful” human being (power granted by the fallen god who vampirizes him) is much more difficult, because it requires a mountain of subtle energy.

Moreover, this human being thinks that he is powerful by himself, he does not imagine for a single moment that his power comes from invisible Forces (except those who have consciously signed a pact with the Devil, but these do not want to be exorcized, because they obtain far too many material advantages in the visible world).

So, with this information, you should know what type of entities vampirize you...

Heavy energy such as fatigue and procrastination, negative emotions (anxiety), shyness and social phobias, obsessive negative thoughts (feeling of losing control), feeling of being lost (even manipulated by dark Forces), so welcome to the lower astral ...

demons, parasites and black magicians, vampirize you and cause a lot of suffering!

But good news, your exorcism will be easier.

Unlimited energy that gives you the impression of being powerful, positive emotions that constantly motivate you to move forward and undertake things, positive thoughts that feed your ego and your feeling of superiority, feeling of knowing exactly what you want (to be rich, famous and powerful), magical powers (hypnosis, mentalism, leadership, etc.), so welcome to the high astral... very powerful fallen gods vampirize/manipulate you by lending you their powers, except that you are their hands on Earth in order to execute and to contribute to their evil plan.

Bad news, your exorcism will be more difficult (but not impossible).

LESSON #3

Everyone is vampirized/possessed to varying degrees

I'm sure you've already heard about the matrix, the simulation, the illusion, in which all human beings are trapped.

This energy matrix is nothing more and nothing less than the soul of planet Earth, that is to say the electromagnetic field (aura) that surrounds planet Earth.

NOTE: an energy matrix is simply a mass of atoms.

In truth, the human being is prisoner of 4 matrices:

- 1) your personal matrix, which corresponds to your individual world, your soul, your own energy structure (aura).
- 2) your environmental matrix, which corresponds to the where you live, your house/apartment, your city, your country.
- 3) your collective matrix, which corresponds to the people around you, your family, your neighbors, the inhabitants of your city / country.
- 4) And the terrestrial matrix, which corresponds to the soul of the planet on which we all live.

These 4 superimposed matrices generate what you call your LIFE , your world.

And at the moment, you are trying to act, as best you can, on your personal matrix, because it is the first that directly impacts you (your energy, your emotions, your thoughts, your actions, your decisions, your personal values, your state of consciousness, etc.).

But you must know that your Life is also the result of 3 other matrices (the energy of your of life; house and country, the energy of the people you frequent, and finally, the energy of planet Earth itself).

For example, you could have a super personal matrix, absolutely pure and luminous, but if you live with a toxic person, in a building with toxic people, and in a country at war, then your personal matrix will not remain pure long time...

So, I can tell you, ALL human beings living on Earth are already prisoners of the 4th matrix, the one that we all share in common, that of planet Earth.

Whether you are happy, or unhappy, vampirized or free, you are still in the same earthly matrix as all human beings, and unfortunately, this matrix itself is already polluted, controlled and vampirized by the evil entities of the high astral (gods fallen).

How do they control this matrix?

Well, you have to think in terms of energy...

The evil entities have simply partially holed/destroyed the soul of the Earth (the famous hole in the ozone layer), which has considerably reduced the vibration level of planet Earth.

It's like you have a hole in your soul...

In addition, evil entities (who manipulate the financial appetites of humans) exploit the resources of planet Earth (minerals, forests, water, etc.), which considerably reduces its electro-magnetic field (aura).

It's as if you are reducing your own resources, which inevitably diminishes your vital energy...

We are therefore simply prisoners of an earthly vibrational prison, which forces us to evolve in a dimension whose vibrational frequency is very low, in any case, much lower than what it should be originally.

Due to the low vibrational frequency of the earth's matrix, we are all human beings, prisoners of this dimension.

But be careful, despite this earthly vibrational prison, you can still free yourself from the influence of evil entities.

Besides this terrestrial dimension that we all share in common, there is then the collective dimension.

For example, we are all affected by the negative energies of world wars, human suffering, economic crises, global pandemics, etc.

All this is only the consequence of extraterrestrial entities, which control human governments and which destabilize human beings to weaken them and prevent them from freeing themselves.

However, you could move and choose the country that seems the most peaceful possible (or stay in your country by choosing the most vibrant possible, close to Nature).

And then, there is the environmental matrix (your of life, house or apartment).

If you are pure, but you live in a toxic house, or even a haunted house, your soul will not stay healthy for very long...

And finally, there is your own personal matrix, your soul which generates an electromagnetic field (aura) more or less intense depending on the negative energies accumulated in your different bodies (emotions, thoughts, karma, etc.).

Thus, it is on these last two matrices (your soul and your house) that I intervene as an exorcist.

Said in a simpler way, I will purify your soul, and that of your of life, I will chase away the evil entities (from the lower astral and the higher astral) which are vampirizing you and your of life.

And as you now know, it will be easier for the demons/parasites of the lower astral, but much more complicated for the fallen gods of the higher astral, because they unfortunately control the higher matrix (the collective unconscious matrix, and therefore all beings). humans, but also the terrestrial matrix, the soul of the Earth whose vibrational frequency is voluntarily reduced to prevent us from evolving).

Thus, all human beings are vampirized to varying degrees, depending on the 4 matrices that form their Life.

And the superposition of these 4 matrices generates many similar symptoms, which are found in most human beings, whatever the country on Earth, because as you can see, EVIL grows a little more every day, whatever be the country on Earth...

- generalized and chronic fatigue, burn-out, physical and psychological exhaustion (people are so siphoned by the stress caused by evil entities that they become larvae, living dead, surviving with the help of various drugs such as coffee, sugar, and alcohol, the most common stimulants on Earth).

- negative emotions, anxieties, chronic anxiety (people think that they are victims of negative emotions, when in reality an emotion is an energy in movement, or rather, an evil entity in movement in your energy structure, your soul).

The more negative emotions you have, the more vampirized you are. But be careful, the less emotions you have (emotional insensitivity), the more vampirized you are too.

These two profiles indicate vampirization by different types of entities (the lower astral causes pathological hypersensitivity, the higher astral causes insensitivity, the free human being has a balanced sensitivity).

- negative, obsessive thoughts, phobias, little voice in the head which becomes more and more present and oppressive, which can even give the feeling of going crazy and losing control of your life.

In all religions, the mind is symbolized as a little devil who speaks in your ear... all your negative thoughts would therefore only be the thoughts instilled by the entities that vampirize you. Note that a free person has no negative thoughts.

- karma, suffering, chaos, if you have the impression of living in hell on Earth, then the evil entities have done their job well. Karma is the consequence of a life manipulated by evil entities.

It is not your deep soul that creates EVIL, but it is the evil entities that vampirize you, that tempt you to do EVIL, and you unfortunately give in more and more easily, but it is not your fault, these vampires just get more and more powerful.

- depersonalization, feeling of being lost, mental fog, depression, spiritual distress, feeling of being isolated/cut off from the world, all of this is a direct consequence of vampirization, or I would even say rement/possession of your soul.

You have lost control, because it is the entity that vampires you that has taken control of your life, your decisions, your actions. You are no longer a free human, but a sheep, a puppet, a slave, who follows the herd, the group, without flinching, without resisting.

If you recognize yourself in just one of these descriptions, be sure that one or more evil entities are present in your personal matrix (soul), and surely in your environmental matrix (your of life, and your loved ones).

And if you open your eyes, if you watch the media, you will realize that 99% of the population experiences everything I described above, to different degrees.

Except I'm going to tell you a secret... the intensity of the vampirization of every human being will increase more and more, and exponentially in the years to come.

EVIL is gnawing away at planet Earth and all its inhabitants, and it will be increasingly difficult to contain the evil entities who vampirize us and who will seek to totally dominate Humanity.

No human being will be spared, and you will have no other choice than to open your eyes and free yourself from these evil entities that imprison you.

If exorcism has been a practice rejected by the vast majority of the ignorant population (who only see 5% of the visible world), you can be sure that exorcism will, within a few years, be a therapy embraced by everyone, because by then, EVIL will have shown its true face, and exorcism will then be considered as the one and only possible solution to free oneself from EVIL.

This is what I personally affirm, but it is also what all the religions of the whole world affirm, which preach to the people that EVIL and its army are coming fast (in truth, they are already here, but invisible to the eyes of the ignorant)...

LESSON #4

There are two main categories of exorcist priests

When I discovered the world of energy and spirituality, but especially the invisible world of entities of light and darkness, I was as fascinated as I was frightened.

My feelings were confirmed throughout my experiences, because on the one hand, I had the chance to encounter (in consciousness) absolutely luminous and benevolent energies, but above all I encountered quantities of negative, dark, aggressive and absolutely terrifying entities.

Often, I told myself that I was going to stop everything... but I couldn't, because stopping everything also meant accepting being vampirized by a vampire again, which was out of the question in my eyes, and that's forced me in some way to evolve and continue the spiritual battle.

Throughout my experience, I have also met a number of energy healers, and therefore exorcists.

Because an energy healers, who works in the invisible world, is above all an exorcist... because his mission consists mainly of freeing the souls of his clients from EVIL (whatever form this EVIL takes: fatigue, emotions, thoughts , karma, entities, etc.).

And after years of observation, here is my conclusion: there are two main categories of exorcists:

1) the vampirized exorcists

2) the free exorcists

The vast majority of exorcists are themselves vampirized by evil entities, from the lower and higher astral.

The exorcists vampirized by the entities of the lower astral is generally hypersensitive, but in a pathological way, that is to say that he perfectly feels the evil energies / entities of the invisible world, but this world generates great suffering in him (negative emotions, depression, isolation, instability, anxiety, pathological hypersensitivity, etc.).

He is a bit like an emotional and psychological sponge, which tires him enormously after each consultation he carries out with his clients.

These exorcists do not last long, because either they end up falling ill (somatization of emotional suffering into visible illness), or they end up in a psychiatric hospital (or commit suicide).

Indeed, living vampirized by demons/parasites is absolutely terrible suffering, and it quickly leads you to depression, madness or death (suicide).

But there is also the exorcists vampirized by the evil entities of the high astral, by the fallen gods.

These exorcists have incredible powers, which I have seen with my own eyes. In general, the majority of these exorcists do NOT know that they are being manipulated in the invisible (unless they have made a conscious pact), so they readily attribute their powers to their own merits.

They think these are their powers, when in truth, they are the powers bestowed by the fallen gods of the high astral.

And these fallen gods can do many things:

- reading minds (some therapists can read you like an open book, but is it them, or the fallen god within them?)
- chase away all entities from the lower astral (a powerful fallen god has control over all the evil entities from the lower astral and can therefore chase them away in a fraction of a second)
- cure inflammatory type diseases (cutting/removing the “fire” of diseases, pain, inflammation, etc., these healing powers consist of absorbing inflammation, which is in truth a peak of energy with the aim of heal.

Your pain/inflammation may be gone, but it's just the energy from the inflammation that was stolen by the evil entity, except the cause of the illness is still present (chronic dormant illness).

In short, in appearance, an exorcist vampirized by a powerful fallen god from the high astral has impressive powers, but know that he will NEVER cure you, he will NEVER free you, because if in appearance, you feel better, in the invisible, your soul has become imprisoned even deeper.

For example, during an exorcism by a fallen god from the high astral, all demons/parasites are effectively cast out, but the entity will a quantity of invisible energy implants, which will ensure the transfer of all of your energy.

Rather than sharing your energy with demons from the lower astral, the fallen god vampirizes the whole for himself. He will even grant you his powers in passing, which will also instill in you the desire to heal others...

You will have more confidence in yourself, you will feel yourself growing wings, you will want to save and heal the world, except that in truth, it is always the same evil entity from the high astral, which deploys its network of exorcists in order to build up its pool of energy.

In short, he enlarges his human livestock.

Some networks are thus deeply corrupted:

- Reiki / Lahochi / Accessbars, are energy healing techniques, which are in reality networks of therapists who unconsciously spread the tentacles of very powerful evil entities from the high astral.

- Hypnosis is an extra-terrestrial technology which aims to implant a program in your brain, without your awareness. Hypnosis is precisely the technique used by the majority of fallen gods to lure you into their unconscious nets, in order to implant you and capture your energy (never let a hypnotherapist insert a program in your head, because it will be that of a mighty fallen god).

- Christian baptism, which consists of protecting the infant's soul through the Forces of light like Christ, is often carried out by priests corrupted by EVIL, who will place their hands on the child's head, thus cutting its connection with GOD, then the thumb on the forehead, to block the 3rd eye, and finally on the heart, in order to block all extra-sensory feelings of the invisible world.

All gurus (vampirized) do exactly the same thing to indoctrinate their followers, like the famous Osho, father of tantric rites (obligation to sexualize with the master), and collector of a hundred luxury Roll-Royces.

And if you are a Christian, don't throw stones at me, because today we know that the Church has "hidden" hundreds, if not hundreds of thousands, of cases of pedophilia.

So obviously, we should not generalize... not all Christian priests are pedophiles, far from it...

But, imagine that those who are pedophiles their hands, so-called sacred, on the head, forehead and heart of your children...

Are you sure it's the Holy Spirit who will descend to him... or a powerful fallen god?

NOTE: I definitively cutted my connection with the Church when I was a young teenager, my little brother and I went to the church mass every Sunday. We loved the Father of our parish, he was so kind that we even invited him to eat at our house, he even gave music lessons to my little brother, until the day he was officially charged with sexual assault (fortunately, on other children than us, certainly younger and more fragile than us, who were already adolescents). That day taught me that behind the nicest people (on the surface) sometimes hide the worst demons. As I said, we should not generalize, but pedophile priests seriously harm their religion that they are supposed to embody.

So yes, baptism puts your children in the hands of the Church, but which church?

So I have just painted a horrible picture, but fortunately, there are also luminous exorcists, who are sincere in their approach, who know the risks of the invisible world, and who know that this world is loaded with evil entities often very ill-intentioned.

Moreover, these exorcists have often already been vampirized in the past, so they know what they are talking about, but they have already taken the path towards their own liberation, so they also know how to do it, and what energies to use to liberate oneself.

So be careful, these exorcists are not perfect, they are themselves vampirized, but to much lesser degrees (barely a few percent).

Indeed, even if their soul is pure, they are also prisoners of the earthly matrix, like everyone else.

They can live in a country at war, corrupt, and therefore indirectly experience the vibration of the inhabitants of their environment.

They may have a family disrupted by EVIL and therefore experience environmental disruption from their loved ones.

They may live in a neighborhood with several houses haunted by deceased souls, which will sometimes disturb their sleep, but for all that, their own individual matrix (soul) will remain pure and clean.

And if it were to be polluted / attacked / vampirized by surrounding entities (, family, loved ones, city, etc.), these exorcists know exactly what to do to quickly free themselves from it.

Moreover, these people do not wait to be vampirized to cleanse/purify themselves, because they cleanse their souls by praying every day, several times a day.

These exorcists are therefore able to consciously confront the evil entities of the invisible world, and therefore to exorcise and free their clients from EVIL.

But be careful, there are people who CANNOT be released for several reasons...

LESSON #5

The invisible world can and must be measured with great precision

Everything is energy in the universe, and the fascinating thing is that EVERYTHING can be measured!

In the visible world, you will use a multimeter or other more sophisticated tool to measure energy and electromagnetic fields.

But in the invisible world, we use more subtle instruments, such as the dowsing pendulum, which allowed, for example, dowsers of the time to locate water sources, or even gold mines.

But the pendulum also allows us to measure many things in the invisible world, such as:

- the number of entities that vampirize a soul
- the type of entities that vampirize you (low astral, high astral, etc.)
- the amount of negative energies accumulated in your body (toxins, heavy metals, etc.)
- the amount of negative energies accumulated in your soul (negative emotions and thoughts, karma, etc.)

- the amount of negative energies accumulated in your home (memories of the , karma, etc.)
- the percentage of vampirization of a soul, of a house (to what degree you are vampirized)

Etc.

In short, a number of esoteric measures which are essential to the exorcist BEFORE engaging in an exorcism prayer.

In general, vampire exorcists never measure anything, they trust their instinct (often corrupt) or their disordered ego (feeling of all power).

Free exorcists ALWAYS measure the Vampire Forces, to know if they have the energy capacity to cancel the negative energies present.

In my case, I ALWAYS measure my clients' situation to ensure that my exorcism treatment will work.

For example, I know what level of positive energy I have available to carry out the exorcism treatment.

And I compare with the karmic load present on the client...

Etc.

In the majority of cases, I can intervene, but in many cases (one in two cases), I prefer not to intervene, because I risk a return that I would not be able to withstand, energetically and spiritually speaking.

NOTE: out of overconfidence, I have already suffered some back attacks so powerful that I was (temporarily) vampirized myself. Luckily, I NEVER work alone, so I was able to call on my fellow exorcists to free me very quickly. Indeed, when you are strongly vampirized, you lose all your powers, and all your prayers no longer have any effect. You are therefore obliged to resort to external help. This also explains why self-exorcising never (or very rarely) works.

Here are some examples of clients I have refused:

- the client is strongly vampired, but I notice that the main entity comes from the building where the client lives. The building therefore stores a collective negative energy, and it is impossible for me to completely free the client, because I would have to purify the entire building.

Indeed, an apartment is a part of a complete building. Evil entities control the entire building, and so you share the common karma of all your neighbors.

This is why I always advise my clients to live in a detached house rather than a collective building.

Some old buildings harbor negative energies (karma) whose power and violence you cannot imagine, and I therefore prefer to abstain...

NOTE: certain very powerful evil entities (from the high astral) sometimes control hundreds of buildings (especially in large cities), and therefore vampirize hundreds of thousands of human beings. I very rarely face these evil entities because the return is too violent.

- the client is going through real hell and complains of repeated insomnia and anxiety. During my measurements, I realize that the entity is present because of a very intense karmic charge (a lot of negative energies accumulated in the soul).

The client indeed has a serious past and he admits to having done a lot of wrong, without wanting to repent and ask forgiveness for the wrong he has done.

The client also continues in his unhealthy excesses, without understanding that this is the source of his discomfort. I then prefer to abstain, because the client consumes the exorcism treatment as a medicine which would allow him to continue doing EVIL, without suffering (paying his karma).

It's like an athlete who takes painkillers to continue running, even though his pain is caused by too much exercise.

So I cannot exorcise a person so that they continue to do evil peacefully...

- the client lives in an old house steeped in history, but above all he is part of a large royal family (oligarchy). When I analyze his soul, I discover many karmic links, probably with his entire royal family. I also realize that his entire family is heavily vampirized and controlled by very powerful evil entities from the high astral.

NOTE: The great royal families are often the most vampirized and controlled in the world.

I therefore prefer to abstain, because the client has no intention of moving away from his family, he does not see that they are the source of his suffering, and he even derives a very great financial advantage from it (heritage, luxurious comfort, etc.).

An exorcism would therefore be of no use, because the evil Forces present would quickly regain control of the individual, who is part of an egregore that is too powerful.

So here are some examples...

It is important to note that I refrain from intervening especially when the individual suffers unconsciously, that is to say without understanding the source of their suffering.

Indeed, there is a very important law to understand: EVERYTHING is karma in Life.

Everything that happens to you today is the consequence of past actions and decisions.

Obviously, the collective karma of human beings dates back several thousand/million years, but that does not take away the force of this law.

The individual must therefore first become aware of his suffering, he must understand its source.

If he makes it aware, then it is much easier, simpler, and lasting to carry out an exorcism treatment, because the individual would be a co-actor of this liberation, and not a passive consumer, like a sick person would take a medicine. to relieve his symptoms while he continues to eat the same junk food that makes him sick.

In addition, it is important to understand what your decisions and actions are that caused your vampirization and therefore your discomfort.

If I free you from EVIL, but you make the same decisions and actions that created your unhappiness, then you will quickly relapse.

So, any good exorcist measures, analyzes, and then acts, or not.

NOTE: sometimes, a refused client returns a few months/years later with a new state of consciousness which then allows for effective exorcism treatment.

LESSON #6

No popular prayer works

On the Internet, you will find plenty of prayers and exorcism rituals to fight EVIL, cast out demons, exorcise a soul, purify a house, cleanse a person's aura, etc.

And in all religions, priests use several special prayers to drive out demonic entities.

But I have a confidence to tell you...

NONE of these prayers, I mean none, work sustainably.

So, yes, you can obtain temporary relief, but you will NEVER permanently free yourself from evil entities with so-called exoteric prayers.

Exoteric prayers are the prayers given to the people, to the masses, to the sheep, who stupidly repeat what their shepherd told them to recite.

Look at the result around you... people have never prayed so much, and yet, EVIL has never stopped growing, and still continues to gain ground.

So mind you, I myself have been a sheep, I myself have used all the religious prayers of Christianity (being born into a Catholic family).

I have invoked hundreds of millions of times to Jesus, the angels, the archangels, the saints, the masters, God Almighty, etc.

Apart from temporary relief, I never really saw any positive evolution in my former Life of suffering...

So I turned my gaze towards other religious movements...

I used a lot of Hindu songs/prayers imploring Shiva, Ganesh or Krishna to save me...

I attended several shamanic rituals with drums supposed to chase away EVIL, I met a number of energy therapists, exorcists, priests, etc.

I learned a lot, in terms of knowledge, but my inner suffering was intact, despite an apparent positive evolution.

NOTE: if I didn't see any change, GOD still directed me little by little towards the ultimate solution...

Indeed, later, I met an energy healer, who taught me that we can measure the invisible world and in particular its karma, using a dowsing pendulum...

What a surprise, after so many prayers, meditations, chants, spiritual experiences, to discover that my karma was intact! It was like at the beginning, NOTHING had evolved...

Fortunately, there are effective prayers, but they are occult, hidden, unknown, esoteric (reserved for initiates, seekers of truth).

I had to delve back into the study of ancient civilizations, the Aryans, the Celts, the Vikings, the pagans of paganism, the wizards and witches of Wicca, the mages of the Persian people, etc., to discover the true prayers that can fight EVIL effectively and above all sustainably.

Surprisingly, when I search for these prayers on the Internet, NO results appear, as if the whole world, human beings, and even CHAT GPT or Gemini (artificial intelligence) ignore them.

I understood at that moment that religions are corrupted by EVIL... we give junk prayers to amuse the gallery and satisfy all the sheep who continue to be martyred by their executioner shepherd, that is to say the evil entities that control the world.

I will give you some examples of totally ineffective prayers:

- Send light to EVIL, Enlighten entities

Saint-Thomas said that everything that is exposed to the Light (of Consciousness) is transformed into Light.

In theory, it's beautiful, it's inspiring... but in practice, it doesn't work! Worse, you even feed evil entities that feed on light.

These entities eat your light, they feed on light, on energy, just like you. So if you send them light, or worse your energy, you make their work of vampirization easier.

It's like you're bleeding yourself to collect your blood, and willingly give it to the vampires...

You could tell me that to enlighten means to bring awareness... well, know that the majority of vampirized/possessed people are very aware that an entity is vampirizing them, and yet, that does not free them.

The light of consciousness is not enough, and sending your own light/energy is suicide.

- Eliminate EVIL, Remove entities

In physics, there is a law which says: "Nothing is lost, everything is transformed" .

In other words, you CANNOT eliminate one thing in the universe, because everything is alive and will remain so. Death does not exist, there is only a process of transformation.

Said another way, you CANNOT eliminate EVIL, you CANNOT remove darkness, you cannot get rid of negative energies, it is physically impossible.

EVIL is as much a part of Creation as GOOD.

And then, wanting to eliminate an entity is like wanting to kill your neighbor who is disturbing you, this generates heavy karma, even if your neighbor deserves it and disrupts the entire neighborhood.

- Invoke Jesus, the angels, or even the archangels.

Christians recite their names over and over again, and they still suffer just as much, year after year.

You must understand one thing... invoking the beings of light who are OUTSIDE the terrestrial matrix (high astral, Sky) does not work, and will never work, for the simple reason that they cannot intervene in the terrestrial matrix.

As I explained to you, the earth's matrix has a vibrational frequency which has been deliberately reduced. Angels, archangels, masters, etc. cannot enter there, because this would mean dropping their own vibrational frequency to the level of humans.

They would then be vulnerable to the eyes of evil entities who would then be happy to attack them and siphon their energy.

This is why they NEVER intervene in our matrix, they can only transmit messages, intuitions, signs.

But they will never free you from EVIL on Earth, because they would sign their death warrant.

Besides, if GOD, the angels and the archangels could free us, they would have done so a long time ago, but the low vibrational level of the earth's matrix blocks their access.

In truth, evil entities have transformed Earth into Hell (by lowering the vibration of the Earth's electro-magnetic field), and the gods of light CANNOT intervene in Hell, because the vibration is too low, Earth has therefore become the domain of darkness, demons, fallen gods.

NOTE: know that within a few years, planet Earth will regain its full energy potential, which will then allow the luminous entities of the high astral to intervene in our dimension. But first, the current illegitimate society must self-destruct, and no one will be able to prevent it, it is the rule, a cosmic law.

- invoke the spirits of Nature (elementals)

If we cannot invoke beings outside the terrestrial Matrix, then we must invoke beings within the Matrix itself, that is to say the spirits of Nature, the Totem animals, the plant spirits or the power of minerals.

The druids of the time, the pagan pagans, the mages of the time, were surely the best equipped to face the army of darkness, except that today, Nature, the spirits of Nature, are heavily martyred , as much as human beings.

The forests are destroyed, the seas are polluted, the rivers are poisoned, the air is stale, the animals are tortured, the plants are destroyed, in short, Nature and Mother Earth are badly mistreated.

At the time, the elementals, gods of the elements, would have been enough to save us, but today, it is no longer enough.

NOTE: Summoning the elementals in a Preserved Nature still works and allows you to obtain very good results.

Furthermore, I advise you not to approach modern shamans to exorcise yourself, especially if they use root decoctions (ayawaska, etc.) or hallucinogenic plants (tobacco, coca, etc.), or even transcendental music with drums, because rather than exorcising yourself, you will have yourself implanted by a number of astral parasites, demons, black mages, who will never let go of you afterwards...

NOTE: the majority of people who have experienced these shamanic retreats end up either in a psychiatric hospital or with an exorcist priest with the hope of being freed from the presences that haunt them.

Anyway, here it is!

All this to say that the majority of exorcism prayers/rituals do not work.

I can say this having experienced them ALL during more than 20 years of spiritual research.

I can thus affirm after having done a number of assessments and energy treatments, there are clearly prayers which work, and others which have absolutely no effect.

NOTE: Here is a simple prayer that works quite well: "Almighty God, to all the energies of light that surround me, thank you for purifying me. »

You will tell me that it resembles a Christian prayer, except that Christians do not invoke the energies of light, which could be translated as "spirits of Nature" or "elementals".

Be careful, as I have already said, a prayer is only effective for a liberated person (vibration level above 50%), because a vampirized/possessed person loses all these spiritual powers, and reciting prayers no longer has any effect (or very little), I personally had the hard experience of it.

When a person is possessed, red, it means that their soul is more than 50% vampirized.

This is measured perfectly using a dowsing pendulum, which I always do with all my clients.

Note that as I write this document, 85% of the world's population is possessed, that is to say more than 50% vampirized.

When I tell you that EVIL is eating away at human hope, it's a truth!

There are only 15% of free souls left, but unfortunately, EVIL becomes so violent, powerful, and omnipresent that the last resisters will eventually fall, until the last day of the Apocalypse.

At the last day, only 1% of the world's population will remain FREE, and a great event will surely occur, certainly in the invisible world, but I do not yet know exactly how it will manifest itself in the visible world.

NOTE: as I said above, planet Earth will regain its full energy potential, which will raise its vibrational level, and will then allow the gods of light from the high astral to descend to Earth. But in the visible world, I don't really know how it will manifest, surely a new golden age, filled with peace and happiness, with very conscious people...

LESSON #7

Today's society is an evil factory running at full speed

We currently live in a society, a system, totally corrupted by EVIL and its army of evil entities.

Here are some easy observations to make:

- The hierarchy of the visible world is determined by evil entities

Kings/Queens/Princes are the most controlled/possessed human beings in the world.

These characters are vampirized by the most powerful evil entities of the high astral.

On the Internet, “conspiracy theorists” assert, for example, that the Kingdom of England is part of one of the most powerful reptilian families in the world.

He also claims that the great banking families are controlled by the most powerful fallen gods in the Matrix.

Below we have the governments and all the senior officials who contribute to the smooth functioning of the corrupt political system.

These people are obviously corrupted by very powerful evil entities, who follow the directives from above, that is to say fallen gods who control the kings / queens.

Below, we have the working people, the workers, the managers, the civil servants, the technicians.

These people are vampirized to varying degrees by a number of evil entities, mixing those from the high astral and those from the low astral.

Some of them manage to rise in the hierarchy by actively participating in the evil project of higher entities.

And others end up sooner or later falling, because of the demonic entities of the lower astral, who end up siphoning off all their vital energy.

And then, below the people, we have the martyred people, the poor, the welfare recipients, the sick, the drug addicts, who are victims of the evil system in which we live.

These people end up falling into drugs, addictions, depression, madness, mental illness... and when you analyze their soul, you discover that they are abused by dozens of demons, parasites, who transform their Life in real hell on Earth.

If we all live in Hell (weakened earthly matrix), these people certainly live in the depths of Hell, where the suffering is the worst of all.

- All vices are legalized

The objective is clear and precise: to put to sleep the conscience of the sheep, to weaken the human slaves, to transform the lions into puppets, to bring down the resistance thanks to temptations, in short, to prevent the awakening of consciences which would seriously hamper the projects of the entities evil.

So, we legalize/tolerate cannabis (CBD), the sale of alcohol, massive consumption of sugar (soft drugs), street prostitution, hidden prostitution (website, social networks, porn, etc.), games casinos and video games, tobacco, hard drugs which circulate easily in all major cities, etc.

And then, recently, there was the appearance of Fentanyl, the most violent synthetic drug there is, because it transforms the individual into a zombie, which allows demons to take possession of their body and mind .

All this promotes the fall of society, its vampirization, and thus blocks its energy and spiritual liberation.

- We create inflation

War factory, voluntary rebellion, massive use of printing money, manipulation of the stock market, all this generates uncontrollable inflation, a rise in prices, and the fall of a large part of the people into poverty.

This also forces part of the people to enter into the sin of greed, wanting to invest financially to enrich themselves despite inflation.

Today, it has become almost impossible to live normally, that is to say simply to work to earn one's daily bread, and to sleep peacefully.

No, you have to work twice as hard, save, invest, undertake, in short we force you to enter a vicious circle of money, always more money.

Some even invoke dark forces to join the corrupt network of wealthy people, all controlled by evil entities.

Unfortunately, this distances you from the truth, distances you from spiritual practices, and allows evil entities to continue their vampirization quietly.

And the few unfortunate resistance fighters will soon have no more money to eat, to house themselves, and the worst is that they will not even be able to free themselves spiritually, because of the ineffective prayers that their religion has given them.

In short, the fall of the human being is underway, for the benefit of evil entities who feast on your energetic bodies (souls) by siphoning and abusing them in a disrespectful and aggressive manner.

- We hide the truth

If there is one thing that I have understood over several years of experience, it is that EVIL entities, love to communicate and show their supremacy through symbolism.

Evil entities hide the truth, they obscure reality thanks to their voluntarily diminished vibrational matrix, but they also like to make it known that they are present.

EVIL will then use several channels to present Reality...

- science fiction films (Matrix, God of Egypt, Avatar, Alice in Wonderland, the X-Files, Stargate, ET home phone, etc.)

Not all fantasy films come from the human imagination, but represent the reality of the invisible world.

Only those trained to see the symbols will be able to understand the teachings behind these popular films.

- area 51

Americans fantasize about Area 51, as the that studies extra-terrestrials, and prepares the future invasion of aliens on Earth.

The declassified files show “gray” type extra-terrestrial beings as seen in many science fiction films.

Except that these beings do exist, but not in our physical world, rather in the invisible world. And indeed, their body takes on this appearance, in any case, for this family of evil entities called the “grays”.

- numerology

You all know the famous number, 666, which is the number of the Beast, a number which is presented in the Book of Revelation of John of Patmos, chapter 13, verse 18.

The beast actually corresponds to a political system whose power, conferred by Satan, extends over all men who adhere to it by receiving the “mark of the beast”.

In other words, if you adhere to the corrupt political system that is in , you automatically receive the “mark of the Beast”, d under the number 666.

Google “666 new cases of” and you will also see how EVIL communicates in the visible world, and how it broadcasts the symbolism of the mark of the beast in the media.

In conclusion

All this to say that evil entities have a very specific plan.

It has been unfolding their agenda for thousands of years, and we are soon reaching its climax (Apocalypse).

What is the ultimate goal of these entities?

Very simple !

Reveal themselves in broad daylight, and no longer live in the shadows!

And they will only do it when they have marked all the livestock, all the puppets, all the human beings with their number 666, the mark of the beast.

The evil entities are 85% of the way through the execution of their plan, because 85% of the population is already marked by the Beast (vibrational level below 50%)...

In other words, they will only appear in broad daylight when the majority of human beings are vampirized and possessed by evil entities (more than 50% remnant of the soul).

For what ?

Well, exposing themselves in broad daylight still represents a great danger for these entities, because for the moment, they are exposing themselves to a great rebellion of human beings (the remaining 15% still masters of their lives)...

They will therefore only do it when they are sure that there will be no more resistance fighters, or that there will be so few of them that there will no longer be any risk of being defeated by the Light.

And if you are a big fan of the Simpsons family (American cartoon which accurately predicts / announces the future of the United States but also of the world), you know that the year 2024 will be marked by a massive zombie attack.

NOTE: The Simpsons Family is a broadcast channel used by evil entities to reveal their plan, like many fantasy books or films.

In other words, in 2024 there will be an unprecedented global economic crisis, which will result in a social war and the awakening of the countless zombies currently sleeping in our cities.

These zombies are nothing more and nothing less than the countless drug addicts, homeless, poor, migrants, mentally ill, etc., who simply want to eat.

These zombies will be accompanied by the countless delinquents tolerated on the soil of many countries, such as in France, where the government tolerates the presence of thousands of terrorists (S files).

When I talk about zombies, I'm talking about human people, who are still alive externally, but who are dead internally, who have lost (or sold) their soul to evil entities, and who are therefore their host.

These evil entities, from the lower and upper astral, will therefore use 85% of the current population (that which is red) in order to show their true face. These entities will then unleash upon the world a flood of violence and suffering, the likes of which the world has never known before.

NOTE: Why do you think the majority of rich people build underground bunkers? They know that it will soon be the apocalypse, because they have prepared for it...

Why am I telling you this?

Well, the Buddha said that ignorance is the mother of all suffering, and that knowledge is the first step towards liberation.

When this happens, you will then be prepared, and ready to face this challenge, which will exterminate many poor human souls, ignorant of the invisible world.

This has already started with the countless wars, Ukraine/Russia, Israel/Palestine, etc., it will continue exponentially from the majority of countries, who will have allowed EVIL (mark of the Beast) to infiltrate too deeply into their political system.

But despite this dark future, know that you can live a bright life, as long as you free yourself from EVIL and their army of evil entities.

A powerful exorcism treatment then becomes your one and only way out...

WHO AM I ?
And how can I help you?

Here are the big lessons I learned while facing the worst demons during exorcism treatments, in person and remotely.

But before I got there, I went through a long, long road in darkness.

As a child, I grew up without a father, with a mother more than 51% vampirized (which I would discover later), and in a family more than 51% vampirized.

As a teenager, I suffered so much (depression, bipolar crisis alternating between anger and extreme sadness, chronic fatigue, etc.) that I told my mother that I wanted to die.

She takes me to the doctor who diagnoses me as depressed and gives me medical treatment (antidepressant).

I took the medication for only one month, because despite the instant relief that the medication brought me , I felt the worst suffering within me, that of feeling totally cut off/ disconnected from my being, from my soul.

After quickly stopping medical treatment, I looked for a solution in personal development, in which I would later become an expert .

But despite this theoretical expertise, inner suffering was always present.

I then discovered new-age spirituality, then more traditional spirituality, of which I absorbed hundreds of books.

I was also training for 5 years to become a Yoga teacher.

I have meditated daily, sometimes several hours a day, for over 15 years.

At the same time, I was training in a number of alternative therapies.

But the suffering was still present.

Then one day, I met an energy healer who taught me the art of the pendulum, and how to measure the invisible world.

I then discovered that my karma was intact and that all my spiritual practices have had no effect.

A real shock, but also a real revelation, because I then discovered the incredible invisible world, in short the world of energy, of atoms, of quantum physics .

I then became an energy healer, training myself in all possible specialties: shamanism, druidism, divinatory arts, quantum physics, etc.

I then do a number of energy and spiritual assessments with my pendulum, and a number of energy treatments, in my office and remotely.

And after these 20 years of experience, here is my simple, clear and precise conclusion...

The human being is a potential god, transformed into an energetic slave, by evil entities (fallen gods) as powerful as the beings of light.

These fallen gods have destroyed / weakened the soul of the Earth (the earth's electro-magnetic field) by making a hole in it from the outside (hole in the ozone layer), and by siphoning off all the precious minerals (which form the capital mineral of the Earth, in the same way as that of the human being).

The Earth is therefore a living being, devitalized, vampirized, possessed and therefore controlled by evil entities, who have voluntarily reduced its energy, its frequency and its vibration.

Obviously, all living beings on Earth are impacted.

If we were gods in the Golden Age, when the Earth had its full energy potential, today we are energy slaves, because the Earth itself is possessed by EVIL.

NOTE: what you call “natural disasters” are in reality attempts by the Earth to free itself, to dispossess itself, to free itself from EVIL, by destroying/expelling all the foreign bodies which pollute it (illegitimate human constructions, but also invisible evil entities on Earth). This is the reason why it is specified in all the sacred texts that natural disasters will intensify, because it is quite simply the planet Earth which will seek to free itself in an increasingly intense manner, in order to avoid to die.

So, after this surprising conclusion, it was only natural that I became a pagan exorcist priest.

I am a “priest” in the sense that I perform a “spiritual” ritual. A priest is not necessarily Christian, there are priests for all religious trends.

I am an “exorcist” in the sense that I free a soul from the evil entities that possess it, and therefore from all the EVIL that they cause to the possessed soul.

And I am “pagan” in the sense that I am a polytheist, I believe in several gods, unlike the 3 monotheistic religions (Christianity, Judaism and Islam) .

Thus, I believe in an Almighty God (father of the other gods), I also believe in the different secondary gods of the Sky (entities of light), but I also believe in the different gods of Nature (the Earth, the Sun, the gods who govern animals, the gods who govern minerals, elementals, etc.).

I consider myself more of a druid, a shaman, a mage, rather than a Christian, Jewish or Muslim priest.

Note that druids, shamans and mages are frowned upon by Christians, Jews and Muslims, who consider them pejoratively as "heathens", or even "disbelievers", in short those who do not believe in a single unique god.

Also note that druids, shamans and mages are wrongly considered evil sorcerers, and that witchcraft is punishable by law in France, but also in many countries.

In Saudi Arabia, for example, witchcraft is punishable by death, although in ancient times, mages were the most respected beings of the Persian people.

In Africa, sorcerers/mages/shamans, more commonly called marabouts, are massacred and their families violently oppressed.

Indeed, ancestral pagan practices have also been corrupted by EVIL, transforming the great mages into little amateur sorcerers who invoke the demons of the lower astral to punish their enemies or the enemies of their clients.

A true druid, mage or shaman, always works for GOOD and refuses all requests to do EVIL, because he knows the law of karma too well.

So !

Now that you know who I am, how I became an exorcist pagan priest, and above all what my vision of the invisible world is, you have several solutions:

- either you tell yourself that I am completely crazy and that it is better to follow serious medical treatment from your doctor to treat your problem (which I absolutely advise you to do)

- either you are even more afraid of the invisible world and evil entities, and you prefer to meet a religious exorcist priest, of your own religion, who believes in a single, unique god (which I definitely advise you to do in order to feel more safe)
- either you tell yourself that I'm weird and that it's better to go see an energy healer you trust more (which I definitely advise you to do, before contacting me)
- either you have already tried everything, nothing has worked, and what I write resonates with your heart and mind (in which case, maybe we can work together, unless I refuse because I don't have not the energetic capacities to confront the evil forces present in your soul).

Now, if you are interested, then the next step is simple: take an energetic and spiritual assessment of your current situation.

With my pendulum, I will measure from a distance:

- what is your vibrational level (how many percent of you are vampirized, to know if you are already more than 51% possessed or if you are still free)
- what is the vibration level of your house (to find out if it is your house which is causing your suffering)
- what is the quantity of negative energies accumulated in your soul (to know the weight of your past decisions and actions, your negative emotions and thoughts, etc.)

- how many karmic bonds imprison you (if you still have karmic bonds, you will continue to be troubled all your life)
- how many evil entities are vampirizing you
- how much negative energy is accumulated in your physical body (heavy metals, toxins, medications, cigarettes, drugs, chemicals, etc.)
- what is the price for your exorcism treatment (if you do not see any concrete improvement, I will refund you completely, no questions asked)

During this assessment, I will also tell you if I am able to carry out your exorcism treatment, or if I am not capable of doing so.

Note that it is not a question of a lack of technique, the prayers are the same, the protocol does not change, but rather it is a question of a lack of energy resources...

Indeed, to cancel the negative energies accumulated in you, body / soul / spirit, you must send the same number of positive energies.

And certain evil entities are far too powerful compared to my energetic capacities, and the return is then too violent. In this case, I therefore prefer to abstain to preserve my own integrity.

FAQ

Have you ever been possessed?

Yes, my soul was over 50% red the first part of my life. This first part of Life was only suffering and illusory pleasures.

Then, after my first spiritual awakening, my first level of awakening, I was vampirized between 1 and 49%, while maintaining control of my Life, of my mind.

Then, the more I progressed and understood how the invisible world works, the closer I got to a minimum vampirization rate of 1%, that is to say almost total control over my soul.

Today, my personal structure is almost "pure", but I unfortunately suffer attacks from entities who sometimes vampirize my loved ones and the inhabitants of my city, which therefore forces me to purify myself daily.

During exorcism rituals, I also suffered major evil attacks, which were the return of evil entities that I had “disturbed” on clients. During these events, my soul was red by more than 51%, which removed all my “powers”, that is to say the total ineffectiveness of all my prayers.

Fortunately, having a minimum mastery of the invisible world, I knew exactly what to do, and above all I had “exorcist” partners who quickly freed me.

After these latest events, you will understand why I am extremely cautious before an exorcism, and why I take so many measures to ensure that I have the energetic resources necessary to protect myself from possible returns.

Today, I am no longer vampirized, or occasionally (when I hang out with too many people). If I ever get partially vampirized, I instantly purify my soul.

And obviously, I help my clients to purify their soul (after having taken a complete assessment of their situation).

Why don't you release your loved ones?

For two reasons :

1) The first is that to free a person, he must be aware of being a prisoner. Except if I am an exorcist and perfectly aware of the invisible world, my loved ones, my parents, my brothers and sisters, my friends, are not exorcists and do not have the same beliefs as me.

I therefore have no right to intervene without their agreement, because I will take away their suffering, which is GOD's very tool to awaken them.

When they think of me, good or bad, they therefore allow the evil entities that possess them to come and disturb me. Each thought conveys information and therefore forms an invisible link between two beings.

2) The second reason is that there are certain evil entities (high astral) which are far too powerful, because they control the earth matrix and often vampirize hundreds of thousands of people. These are the evil entities at the top of the hierarchy.

These evil entities leave you “quiet” in exchange for your energy (they put implants to siphon you). Personally, I clean these implants daily, but I cannot face these entities directly. I have already tried, and the feedback was so violent, that I stopped fighting them head-on, to simply clean myself daily (remove the implants d).

As I said, as much as it is easy to “hunt” all the evil entities from the lower astral, these higher astral entities are, for the moment, untouchable.

But I say, for the moment, because soon, events will surely occur, which will cause the situation to change (planet Earth will return to its former vibrational level, and beings of light will then be able to descend to Earth).

Can you free me from demons?

In most cases, YES!

As I explained in this document, the majority of evil entities are rather easy to dislodge.

But on the other hand, understand that even if your soul is “pure”, you will always be disturbed by the entities present on others, your loved ones, your family, your children, your parents, your friends, your work partners, especially if you have karmic ties.

I will therefore carry out a first big exorcism which will completely cleanse your personal energetic structure (soul), but then, it will be up to you to maintain your purification by praying daily to protect yourself, and above all, by avoiding decisions, actions and especially pacts, which could harm you.

Furthermore, even if your soul is “pure”, you will always be tempted (temptation of sins) by the powerful entities of the high astral, because they control the earthly matrix. You will therefore sometimes be troubled by unhealthy temptations ... and you must not give in to them.

But it is truly the evil entities of the lower astral that cause so much intense suffering. People who are possessed, bipolar, depressed, schizophrenic, hypersensitive, anxious, phobic, depressed, etc., are much more often disturbed by entities from the lower astral than those from the higher astral.

How to free yourself from the entities of the high astral?

To free ourselves from the fallen gods, we must remove the evil matrix that they have constructed, a matrix that protects them from GOD and beings of light, who cannot intervene in the lower world.

To free ourselves from the matrix, GOD and the luminous beings from above can NOTHING for us, it is up to humans themselves to free themselves from below.

To do this, the people must understand the situation in which they are prisoners. The majority of people have already understood that an evil elite is playing against them, but few people have understood that this same elite is possessed and controlled by fallen gods from the invisible world.

So the people are fighting the government, when in truth, the people should be fighting the EVIL that controls the government. And to fight, it is not a question of going to demonstrate in the street, or insulting your president, it is rather a question of NOT receiving the mark of the Beast.

In other words, to fight EVIL, you simply must not give in to it... you must not participate in the corrupt system that is in , by avoiding the 7 deadly sins, which open the doors to EVIL in your own soul.

You should also know that the beings of light living on Earth (elementals, etc.), but also the Earth itself (Gaia), are preparing to free themselves. Nature is in the same boat as you, because to vampirize you, the evil entities of the high astral had to first vampirize planet Earth, to reduce its energy, its frequency and its vibration.

The Earth and Nature will soon revolt, which will cause a number of natural disasters to reestablish the laws of Nature.

This will raise the vibrational level of the Earth, and therefore awaken human beings to their true nature, and therefore to the truth.

This process is underway anyway, it's only a matter of time. The question is how will you live the next few years? In suffering? Or in the light of GOD and Nature?

What energy do you use to chase away evil entities?

I do not use any popular energy protocols like Reiki, Lahochi, Access Bars , etc, which in my opinion are protocols corrupted by EVIL.

These rituals above all make it possible to constitute a breeding ground for very powerful evil entities who harvest all the energy of the so-called Reiki masters and their clients.

As a druid, mage, shaman, I rather use a mixture of energy, with the beings of light from Heaven (angels, archangels, etc.), but also the energies of light from Nature (Elementals, Totem animals, Sun , Moon, Gaia, etc.).

In addition, in order to accumulate maximum energy before an exorcism treatment, I also use semi-precious litho-therapy stones which I recharge as much as possible by placing them in Nature, in the sun, in the moon, in streams, near a fire, etc.

For example, I own about 100 kilos of rock crystal (quartz), a stone that is known for its energy storage properties.

NOTE: future hard drives will be made of quartz, because this stone has the ability to store information in the form of light.

Thus, by leaving these stones in Nature, in the Sun, they are gradually recharged with telluric energy (from the Earth).

During an exorcism treatment, I then invoke the beings of light (from Heaven), GOD Almighty, but my secret is to direct towards my client all the telluric energy stored in the stones (quartz, but also several other very powerful stones).

Before doing an exorcism treatment, I know, because I measured, how many positive energies there are stored in the stones, and how much negative energy I have to purge in my client.

So I know if I (my stones) have the energetic capabilities to do it, or if I should abstain.

NOTE: this telluric energy storage technology was already used by ancient civilizations (menhirs, dolmens, megaliths, pyramids, etc.).

Can I order a prayer for my wife who is bipolar?

First, consult a doctor regarding your health.

Then, indeed, bipolarity often indicates the presence of several evil entities from the lower astral, and an exorcism treatment can bring relief (but not always, please follow the advice of your doctor).

But it's up to your wife to take the steps to free herself. The desire for liberation must come from herself, not from you, otherwise it won't work in the long run.

Indeed, an exorcism treatment is not a magic pill to consume when you are feeling bad, but rather it is an energetic support to free yourself from EVIL and evolve spiritually.

If there is no desire for spiritual evolution, but simply a desire for relief from suffering, then it is better to go to the doctor for medication.

Indeed, an exorcism treatment will not change her situation permanently, because sooner or later, your wife will make the same decisions and do the same actions, which caused her bipolarity, and the same evil entities will return to take control of her body and mind.

Exorcism is a treatment of liberation, but above all a treatment of spiritual evolution.

Don't get the wrong therapist...

How much does an exorcism treatment cost?

It all depends on the quantity of negative energies accumulated in the different layers of your soul, and in particular in your karmic body.

I can only give you a personalized rate after having done an energy assessment of your soul.

How will it actually work if I order?

First of all, you need to order an energy and spiritual assessment.

This is extremely important to understand your situation in the invisible world.

If I have the necessary energy resources, then I will offer you a price.

IF you accept, then we will make an appointment, and I will carry out your prayer remotely.

During this prayer, there will be no phone support, you will simply have to yourself outside (in the open air), and close to the ground of planet Earth (on a terrace of the 5th floor, this does not work step, you must go down to the ground floor, outside, if possible with bare feet on the ground).

The prayer lasts 1 minute only, because it involves transferring the positive energy that I have accumulated over several days thanks to different methods (prayers, litho-therapy stones, etc.).

If you are sensitive to the invisible world, you will feel a pleasant electric current running through your spine for a few seconds.

If you have any questions afterwards, we can only communicate by e-mail (I do not provide telephone support).

How will I feel after your prayer?

It depends on many factors, and especially in which environmental matrix you live.

Remember, your Life is the result of several superimposed matrices.

We can purify your personal matrix (your soul), the matrix of your of life, but we cannot purify the matrix of your family (unless you ask), nor that of the inhabitants of your neighborhood, your city, of your country, etc.

You will therefore inevitably feel much better, lighter, brighter, more confident, more radiant, but if you always hang out with toxic people or s, you will also feel bad.

For what ?

Well, your “pure” soul will simply tell you that you are not hanging out with the right people or the right s.

You will again feel the negative energies around you, and in general, our clients realize that they are not necessarily in contact with luminous people, nor in holy s.

There is therefore often a spiritual awakening which accompanies an exorcism treatment, an awareness which is not necessarily pleasant to experience, even if you feel better in your body and your mind.

But this is part of the evolution of every human being on Earth.

God gave you a gift for free, why don't you help for free in return?

First, I didn't get anything for free. I acquired my expertise after paying out of my own pocket for thousands of books, training courses, seminars, coaching, retreats, etc.

What you call a gift is rather the result of more than 20 years of personal journey, energetic and spiritual practices, professional experiences, etc.

So no, I paid my money, my time and my person to obtain this expertise, I did not receive anything for free.

And second, I am not supported by any religious system, so I pay my rent, my food, and my utilities, with the money I get from my expertise.

If you think that spirituality should be free, then I invite you to consult the official priest of your religion, who will receive you free of charge.
